A Special Article from the Library

Have you viewed Eastview's library home page yet this year?

Destiny is the online catalog of books available for check out in our library.

Renaissance Place is the web-based version of the STAR Reading and Accelerated Reader programs. These programs enable your child's classroom teacher to more efficiently monitor quality reading based on reading ranges and encourage increased quantity and quality of reading using individual goal-setting. Sign up for email alerts under the Home Connect link. You and your child can access these programs by visiting Eastview's website: ➔click on Library Links under the Students tab. This will open to our library homepage with links to helpful websites. Click on the "Catalog" tab to search our library materials.

[Fifth graders challenge themselves to read one million words this year!]

Read as often as possible with and to your child. Let them read pages or paragraphs aloud to you. Read anything and everything – books of all kinds, signs on the road, food at the grocery store, magazines and newspapers, your to-do list, emails or letters from relatives or friends.

In October check out these authors:

Margery Cuyler's books that include Skeleton Hiccups;

scary story authors Alvin Schwartz and R.L. Stine;

Kate Klise's series 43 Old Cemetery Road;

and Cornelia Funke with her fabulous Ghosthunters series.

Frightfully reading,
Ms. Fesenmaier
